WE'VE SUMMONED YOU TO ASSIST PRINCESS SALLY ON AN IMPORTANT MISSION!
I'M DOWN WITH THAT, KING MAX!
QUEEN ALICIA AND I FEEL THAT SALLY'S BROTHER, ELIAS, HAS BEEN AWAY FROM THE KINGDOM FOR FAR TOO LONG.
"TWO OTHER AGENTS HAVE ALREADY BEEN ASSIGNED THE TASK OF FINDING HIM. NOW IT'S UP TO YOU...

...TO HELP THEM!"
HOLD ON TIGHT, HERSHEY, M'LUV! PRINCE ELIAS' TRAIL LED US TO FERAL FOREST. BUT IT LOOKS LIKE DOCTOR ROBOTNIK MADE IT HERE, TOO!
THOOM
NICE EVASIVE TACTICS, GEOFFREY DEAR.
WELL, I NEVER CLAIMED TO BE MYLES PROWER, YOU KNOW...
"WE'RE GOING TO HAVE TO MAKE AN EMERGENCY LANDING!"
SO, HOW'S YOUR DAUGHTER DOING, JOSS?
MEG'S DOING REALLY WELL, GRIFFIN, OL' BOY! DOC STORK SAID THE BABY'S GONNA BE HERE ANY DAY NOW AND--
HEY! WHERE ARE THE REST OF THE FOREST FOLK HEADED TO IN SUCH A HURRY?
THERE'S BEEN A PLANE CRASH!

MEG, WE'RE GOING TO SEE WHAT THIS IS ALL ABOUT!
BE CAREFUL, DAD!
A PLANE CRASH?
SOUNDS SERIOUS.
CHUNK!
I'D BETTER TELL MY HUSBAND.
ELI?
YES, MEG? WHAT IS IT, DARLING?
I'M NOT SURE.

DENIZENS OF FERAL FOREST. I AM GEOFFREY St. JOHN. MY ASSOCIATE, HERSHEY CAT, AND I REPRESENT KNOTHOLE KINGDOM.
WE'VE SEEN HIS TECHNO-BLIMPS WITH OUR OWN EYES, AND THOUGH HE TRIED HIS BEST TO PREVENT US FROM WARNING YOU...
...THE EVIL DOCTOR ROBOTNIK INTENDS TO INVADE YOUR LANDS!
ARE YOU WILLING TO STAND AND DEFEND EVERYTHING YOU LOVE? WHAT WE'RE ASKING IS...
...ARE YOU READY TO FIGHT?
TYPICAL.

YEEEAAAHHH!!!
AND WHAT DO YOU KNOW?
IT WORKED! MASTERFULLY PLAYED, GEOFFREY...
YOU ALWAYS DID HAVE A KNACK FOR MAKING BAD IDEAS SOUND LIKE GOOD ONES AT THE TIME.
ELI? WHERE ARE YOU GOING?
I'M TIRED OF WAR AND POLITICS, MEG. I JUST WANT TO LIVE OUT THE REST OF MY LIFE IN PEACE.
AND SO SHOULD THE REST OF YOU.
BUT I DON'T UNDERSTAND, ELI. WERE WAR AND POLITICS PART OF YOUR PAST?
THE PAST YOU REFUSE TO SPEAK OF?

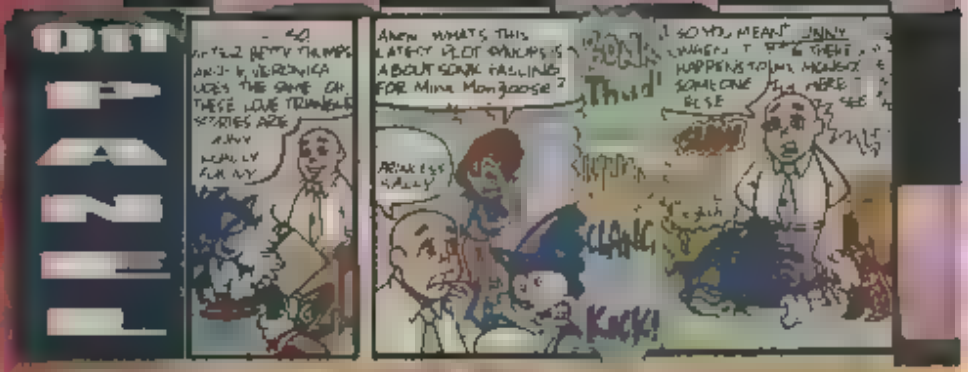
SATURDAY MORNING



THIS JUST IN!

Whew!

Sonic #125, the 10th Anniversary of the Sonic comic, is becoming either a blessing or a curse. It's a lot of hard work trying to keep everybody on the same page (yes, pun definitely intended). As mentioned in previous issues, #125 is a jam issue. Now that most of the pencilers are done (the last one is working on his/her pages as I write this) and it is beginning to be lettered and inked, I'm starting to see the light at the end of the tunnel. Though this is taking most of my attention, I'm also going over color proofs for this issue, having #122 & #123 sent to the separator, coordinating final b/w art corrections on #124, having #126 inked right now, #127 penciled, #128 written, #129-#131 in plot synopsis stage and... you get the idea. Ahh, an editor/art director's work is never done. See you in 4 weeks. Later, [redacted]

COMING ATTRACTIONS

[redacted]

Have you been wondering what would happen in the Sonic/Mina/Sally triangle? Well, wait no longer. The first of a two-part tale will bring this to a head. Sally has been noticing Mina's attraction towards Sonic for many months now and she suspects that the feeling is mutual. Before she's able to confront Sonic and Mina about their "relationship," bounty hunter extraordinaire, Nack The Weasel kidnaps her. "Heart Held Hostage, Pt. " by Karl, Aser and Conor. Knuckles begins to go over the early events of his past from his parents marriage to his infancy in this retrospective story. "Afterlife, Pt. 2" By Ken and Art. Julie-Su and Vector the Crocodile have... a heart to heart!?! Say it isn't so. By Ken and Dawn

NO. 122

I guess we must be doing something right, as we only see your cards, letters and drawings continuing to pour in. Ice, wonder of wonders, the volume keeps increasing as well. To those of you whose letters we've selected, show them to your English teachers, gang, as they'll be quite proud of you! So let's see what was on your minds this month:

Dear Jamie and crew,
I would just like to let you all know how happy I am about issue #119 and what lies ahead for the comic. It really seems to be getting back to its roots. I've been collecting the comics since issue #15, and it's been a long time since I've gotten the refreshed satisfaction I got from this issue.
For one, I'm REALLY glad your stories are starting to have some real heart to them again. I can't wait to read about the Knights and past Guardians storylines. :) In the past SU issues or so, all you've seemed to do was create more characters, have them stick around for awhile, then create more, ignoring many of the good ones of the past. I'm glad you're remembering the ones that have already been really well developed — Rouge, for one (where's he been?), the Chaotix, the Brotherhood, etc. It's nice seeing familiar faces again. Now, if only we could convince you to make a Tails-meets-the-real-Fiona storyline. :)
I can't wait for the next issue. And I mean I REALLY can't. I'm getting this super-excited optimism I haven't felt since I was a kid (I'm 19 now).
Okay, a few last little tidbits:
– love having Art Mawhinney back. He's an old favorite. :)
– liking the new coloring. It looks spiff-ay!
– being back the 48-page specials? Please?
Laura the Knight, Escondido, CA

We'd love to see the return of the 48-page specials as well, and maybe someday, but now is not the time, unfortunately. As for Tails meeting the real Fiona, talk about falling for the older woman, as she's at least 10 years older than he is. Which is why we haven't touched that one yet. Too much heartbreak for the little guy, y'know! And you were far from the only one who expressed kudos over Art's return and the coloring. We hope you're enjoying Art's current run on everyone's favorite echidna during the current storyline. (As for you Dawn Best fans, she's on next issue's Julie-Su story. Check it out.)

Dear Sonic Team,
After being an attentive fan for a good 10 issues now, and being a young (15.5 yrs. old) budin comics artist myself, I thought it time to write to to you. I have, after all, been a Sonic fan since the beginning of middle school, in all incarnations and reincarnations, both old and new. I wanted to express some opinions and commentary on the current state of the STH comic and its staff.
First off, colorists. I just got #117, and the coloring, linework, and penciling for "The Tortoise and the Hedgehog" all seem to just... Click. The expressions are very bold, and trendy without being too exaggerated. The action is fluid as well, and the smooth, flowing finesse provided by Mr. Mawhinney just fits this style perfectly. But even of all, Jason Jessen's shiny, simple, accurate but opulent coloring really makes the whole deal "pop". With Kenny Chanin's "old-school" depiction of Sonic & friends, the art in the story reminds me of the original Sega Genesis video game, the one that started it all – and especially the cover & publicity illustrations for aforementioned vid. It seems to me that while the more typical, darker coloration used in "modern" depictions of Sonic would have worked, it would have been little more than functional, and would serve to dampen down the comedy of the story – subsequently, allowing the underlying themes and lessons to be ignored. Speaking of this more modern coloring style, J.D. dear, Ray did a wonderful job of it. My favorite gimmick for them to work with is, by far, Jeff Kerr. Those subtle, yet deep, and occasionally provocative separations work very well in conjunction with his professional, smooth, yet subliminally detailed pencils, and the sweetness that they themselves can provide. Take a look at "...A Girl Named Hope!" in #108, particularly the in panel with Hope in it, the battle scene below of next page, the depiction of Sonic on the next, and the running & crying Hope directly below that.

To wrap up this gargantuan tome of a letter, I was wondering if any T-shirts have been created of STH: the Comic, and if so, where could I get one? With all the way-past-coolness in my soul, like Flower/AKA, 15, Monroe, WA

So you want a T-shirt, eh? Boy, you don't know how bad we ourselves would want one as well. To say nothing of getting a piece of that action. Have you any idea how many requests we get on a regular basis? If we ever get any good solid info on how to scarf one up, we'll be sure to post it here, okay?

Dear Ken Penders, Karl Bollers and Barney Lee-
First of all, this is for Ken and Karl. Your recent stories have been brilliant, before #100 and after it as well. The characters feel more real than they used to, making it seem like the comic has grown up over the years. I really loved the sword of Acorn plot, Karl. It was filled with all the characters' different emotions and how they reacted to the changes around them.
For ten years they had fought to reclaim Mobotropolis and, after losing it again, the King decided to settle in Knothole. For them to have a defeate home again is really moving. Plus the Sonic/Miss/Sally love triangle keeps me guessing. I'm not sure who Sonic ends up with and even though I'd prefer it to be Sally, I know if he chose to be with Miss, you'll turn it into an excellent story. Also the mystical side to the story keeps me guessing as well, especially Sally's true connection to the sword. It was a shame about Nan Morgan. I knew a lot of people didn't think he was a significant character, but I'm pretty sure his sacrifice spoke for his personality. I suppose it was his way of repaying all the kind hospitality the Mobians gave him when his people abandoned him, and an apology of sorts. I'm glad we still get your stories in the comic, Karl, because the last few stories have been almost breathtaking.
You sure have put poor old Knux through the ringer, Ken! He's come a long way from his days of just simply guarding the master emerald to having the friends and family he has now (after saving them that is). Lara-Su was an amazing character, even though she was really from an alternate future. I'm sure all the Knuckles fans out there would love to see a solo story about her fighting her evil father alongside Julie-Su. Dimitri is probably one of the best bad guys ever to appear in a comic. Even though he has been helpful to Knux over the past few months, he is still evil and from the spoilers of your next big story, I take it that Knux is about to learn that a leopard never changes its spots. I think most of the fans are on the edge of their seats waiting to see what happens to Knux next. Will he turn evil or will he save everyone? I guess we have to wait for the answer to that!
Lastly, but certainly not least, I want to congratulate you, Barney, on your debut into the world of Sonic. I wasn't too sure at I liked the "robonikal=enemies" story, but after going through it several times, I think the way you did it was quite cool. King Acorn didn't trust Julien from the start, did he? I guess he only agreed to help him to find out what he was really up to. It's a shame Julien had to go again but it will be a lot easier for the Freedom Fighters with just one Roboknikal! You make the characters interact with each other more as well, as Karl's stories were about the Freedom Fighters moving apart from each other.
Anyway, I can see that I've babbled on for a long time so I'm going to bring this to a close. Thank you all for making this comic work and although some people may disagree, I think the comic is at its best and will continue to get even better! Keep up the good work! Giles

Thanks, Giles, although you may have opened up a can of worms between Barney and Karl. As for me, I'm staying out of that one and letting them hash it out over what direction the Freedom Fighters should take. Don't worry about Lara-Su, as there's always the possibility of her popping up again, no matter which zone of reality we're dealing with, especially if Knux doesn't make it back from the great beyond. (What's that, Justin? I shouldn't give the game away? Well, who says I did?)

Dear Ken Penders——or whoever it is that is reading this e-mail——
Hello. My name is Sarah Scully——yes, like the X-Files——and I am a fifteen-year-old female who absolutely loves your Sonic comic. Of course, Knuckles will always be my favorite – then, now, and forever. Don't hurt me —— ducks as rabid Sonic fans come charging after her, screaming "You have insulted our idol!"
This e-mail does not really concern either Sonic or Knuckles, however; it's about NIGHTS. Even if you aren't going to bring it back, do you know where I could find it on the net? Some comic store site? I don't really care how much they charge, I just want to find the series.
On a more pleasant note, I want you to know that all of your comics that I've been able to get have been excellent. Keep up the good work——give Dawn Best a big, I-wish-I-could-draw-as-well-as-you thumbs up, and another thumbs up to Ken Penders (for the Knuckles storyline), and who I assume is the person reading this, Tim Knuckles (one is really my favorite part of the comics, hands down, and I've been particularly anxious in trying to get the comics recently, the storyline has been so good. Keep it up—— you've got a lot of fans, including me, who think you're doing awesome. Thanks again.
Sincerely yours, Sarah Scully

What do I say to that?! Thank you, Sarah, and I can safely say I speak for Dawn here as well. As long as we keep doing them, we'll keep making the stories the best we can, and that goes for the rest of the crew who work on this book. Regarding NIGHTS, unfortunately we have sold out of all our copies of #1-3 (you can always ask your parents to try Ebay for you), but #4-6 is still available under our subscription/back order list (while supplies last—so hurry).

Hi, Ken.
Have you've really got me scratching my head. In Dimitri's Bazaille featured in Sonic #105, it says that Ian and Edmund's mother is Cara-Lyn. In #118, it said that Angel-La is their mother. Since the family (from what we're following it) starts with Jordann & Kayla-La, wouldn't it make sense for Angel-La to be their daughter (the whole "-La" thing) and Angel-La would be Edmund/Dimitri's great-grandmother? Angel-La could be Edmund/Dimitri's grandmother and Jordann & Kayla-La's granddaughter instead as well, but the line saying that Angel-La is Edmund's mother in #118 goes against Dimitri's Bazaille——so something has to be declared wrong. Inquiring minds want to know. Katrina

There are moments when a writer (or artist) is confronted with previous work that shows him or her zigging and they should have zagged. In this case, I hadn't anticipated Justin asking me to work in the bit about renaming the Floating Island to its more Sega-specific name de plume of 'Angel Island', and in my haste when turning in the script, I had completely overlooked that one small fact. For the record, it's Angel-La—and Cara-Lyn falls somewhere else on the family tree. (I just have to figure out where now.)

[illegible] Join us again next issue for more fun and excitement. We may even have a contest, if I can think up a good one, that is. Take care.
